

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9TH

Registration—3:30-5:30pm

Games and interactive activities happening during this time:

Basketball tournament
Banner making/art activities
Speedfriending

Dinner—5:30-6:30pm

Summit Opening Session—7:00-9:30pm

7:00 Opening Ceremony including ritual welcome by indigenous peoples of NC

7:20 Welcome and acknowledgements

7:30 Building Our Community Hearth [everyone is asked to bring a symbol of the people and places they love and are committing to protect]

8:00 Climbing PoeTree performance

Friday Evening Activities—9:30pm to midnight

9:30 Youth Circle and Adult Circle

10:30 Fire Circle (with smores) and Drumming Circle

Midnight lights out (for youth)

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10TH

Yoga and centering practice (optional)—7:00am

Breakfast—8:00-8:45am

Saturday Morning Session—9:00am-12:30pm

9:00 Opening

9:15 What is climate justice? What do we mean by ‘frontline’? How do we engage the 4 Rs to re-imagine, re-create, reform and resist?

10:00 Voices from the Frontlines Story Circles: Community leaders speak to the collective impacts they are addressing such as racial and gender-based violence, coal ash, CAFOs, the Atlantic Coast Pipeline, high energy bills, police brutality and natural gas plants

--First Round: Indigenous Leaders
--Second Round: Youth Leaders
--Third Round: Regional Leaders

12:00 Interactive group reflection

Lunch—12:30-1:30pm

Saturday Afternoon—1:30-5:30pm

1:30 Campaign Fair and Truly Free Market (everyone is encouraged to bring informational materials and gently used items for a swap meet)

3:00 Presentation: What does a Just Transition to a clean energy economy entail? How do we create local living economies that build our community resilience?

3:30 Issue Tracks: Making the climate change connection, highlighting local work and building towards a People's Power Plan for NC

- 1) Energy and Jobs
- 2) Food and water
- 3) Housing and transportation

Dinner—6:00 to 7:00pm

Saturday Evening—7:00pm until Midnight

7:00 Short Film Series and discussion; Open Space workshops

8:30 Open Mic with Dasan Ahanu

10:30 Dance Party

SUNDAY, Nov. 23rd

Yoga and centering practice (optional)—7:00

Breakfast—8:00-8:45am

Sunday Morning Session—9:00am-1:00pm

9:00--Opening

9:15 Inner Resilience Tracks

--Rev. Sadler--Justice Action Mobilization Network (JAMN)

- Ekua Adisa—ancestral racial healing
- Rev. Sarah Vekasi—eco-chaplaincy and self-care
- Gary Phillips—guided nature walk
- Rev. Dele—permaculture and care of creation

10:30 Strengthening Our Resilience

11:00 Opportunities for Collective Action—Peoples Climate Movement Planning

12:30 Closing Ceremony

Lunch—1:00-1:30pm